Government of Jammu & Kashmir
General Administration Department

Subject: Clarification regarding renewal of reserved category certificates in favour of Scheduled Castes & Scheduled Tribes.

Circular No. 26 -GAD of 2006
Dated : 08 - 09 - 2006

It has been brought to the notice of the General Administration Department that the recruiting agencies prescribe that category/reservation certificates issue under SRO 294 be enclosed with the applications by the candidates belonging to reserved categories as notified under SRO 294. This has been made applicable to all reserved categories under SRO 294 including SCs & STs. Although the recruiting agencies can ask for such certificates under SRO 294 in respect of candidates belonging to SC & ST categories, certificates issued by the competent authority under the earlier SRO i.e SRO 126 are to be accepted in terms of its rule 34 which is reiterated hereinafter for ready reference:

“34 Validity of the certificate:- The certificate issued under these rules shall remain valid for a period of 5 years from the date of issue;

Provided that nothing in the above rule shall apply to the persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Ex-Servicemen, Handicapped and candidates possessing outstanding proficiency in sports”.

Such order/actions have been saved under sub-section (2) of section 24 of the Jammu & Kashmir Reservation Act, 2004. Hence, the certificate of being a member of SC or ST, issued in favour of any person, is for an indefinite period under the said notification and does not require any renewal.

It is, therefore, impressed upon all the recruiting agencies not to insist on production of certificates under SRO 294 in respect of candidates belonging to SC & ST categories if the candidates are able to produce such certificates already issued by the competent authority under the provisions of SRO-126 to ensure that no avoidable inconvenience is caused to the candidates belonging to SC & ST categories who have already obtained category/ reservation certificates under SRO 126.

Yours faithfully

ANNEXURE R- I

Sub-section (2) and (3) of section 3 and section 5 of the Jammu and Kashmir Reservations Rules, 2004.

Section 3

" (2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law for the time being in force, any person appointed against any available vacancy on the basis of his being a resident of backward area or an area adjoining line of Actual Control shall serve in such areas for a period of not less than seven years:

Provided that in case the post against which he has been appointed is not available in such area, he shall be posted in the nearest adjacent backward area.

(3) Any person who, after being appointed on the basis of reservation, decline to serve in the reserved as provided under sub-section (2) shall be liable to termination from service.

(Provided that no order of termination shall be issued without affording a reasonable opportunity of being heard to such person."

Section 5

5. Vacancies to be carried forward.

(1) Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, if a sufficient number of candidates is not available from any reserved category during a recruitment process, the posts shall remain vacant and shall be carried forward to the next recruitment process:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent launching of a special drive by a selection agency to fill the carried forward vacancies by inviting applications exclusively from persons belonging to such category.

(2) If in the first attempt of recruitment, suitable candidates are not available, second attempt may be made in the same recruitment year and if even then suitable candidates are not available, the vacancies shall be treated as backlog vacancies.

(3) In subsequent year, when recruitment is made for reserved vacancies, the backlog vacancies shall also be notified:

Provided that the total number of reserved vacancies including backlog vacancies shall not exceed the percentage reserved for such categories.

(4) The reserved vacancies remaining unfilled for a period exceeding three years shall be treated as deserved.
